

WOMEN'S PROBUS CLUB OF NORTH SHORE VANVCOUER

West Vancouver Art Museum – Arthur Erickson Centennial Exhibit

Wednesday – May 15th, 2024 – 1:00 pm – 2:30 pm

West Vancouver Art Museum

Arthur Erickson Foundation home and gardens

Women's Probud Exhibition Tour of Images and reconstructed model of the home and gardens of Arthur Erickson's Dunbar Vancouver property, owned by the Arthur Erickson Foundation.

Arthur Erickson (1924-2009) taught architecture at UBC and built many competition winning designs internationally and locally including Simon Fraser University, Robson Square, Museum of Anthropology at UBC and many amazing homes in West Vancouver and Vancouver. His awards include the Royal Architecture Institute of Canada Gold Medal, American Institute of Architecture Gold Medal, French Academy of Architecture Gold medal and the Order of Canada.

Location: West Vancouver Art Museum – 680 17th Avenue (and Esquimalt), West Vancouver, across from WV City Hall.

Parking: Parking available on the south side of the museum and street parking

Maximum – 15 people for the tour

Tour is FREE

Join the group after for coffee at La Crema located at 15th Avenue and Bellevue Street, WV